The Equinox: The Official Organ of the A. A. The Review Of Scientific Illuminism. Vol. I. No. 1. 9 ¾, 255 + 139 pp. Simpkin. 5s.

We have not given above all the title page, for there are certain strange signs and letters upon it which might be as meaningless, if reproduced, to the initiated as the whole work is to the uninitiated. We can only, in respectful silence, commend the volume—as one which is certainly well printed—to "Scientific Illuminists" and "Brothers of the A. A.," and those who wish to understand their motto, "The method of science—The aim of religion." There are contributions from Mr. Frank Harris and Mr. Aleister Crowley, and a special supplement of 139 pp. thus described, "John St. John: The Record of the Magical Retirement of G. H. Frater, O.:M.:"
