

THE ENGLISH REVIEW
11 APRIL 1911

BOOK NOTICES
POETRY AND DRAMA

Review of The Triumph of Pan.

THE TRIUMPH OF PAN. Poems by Victor B. Neuburg. The Equinox.
5s. net.

Mr. Neuburg is apparently a disciple of Mr. Crowley, and his poems are a mystery beyond the comprehension of the uninitiated. But we can appreciate the beauty of their sound, and envy those lovers in distant countries who will apparently enjoy the meaning. Would not "The Crowning of the Beast" have been an explanatory sub-title?