

THE CHICAGO DAILY TRIBUNE
CHICAGO, ILLINOIS
24 MARCH 1919

A LINE O' TYPE OR TWO

An English artist, Aleister Crowley, paints his pictures with his eyes shut, which is an explanation if not an excuse. One of his canvasses is entitled, "Young Bolshevik with Wart Looking at Trotsky." Who is a sort of super-wart.