LIBRARY OF RYERSON
NOW SEIZED FOR DEBT.

Following seizure of his household furnishings Wednesday to satisfy a judgment, the library of Albert W Ryerson, alleged member of the O.T.O. "love cult," which brought Ryerson his first publicity, was seized Thursday by Constable Frank Day to pay a judgment of $500 obtained by Frank Le Page, 469 Henry street, for a loan of $500 advanced to Ryerson in March 1922. The library consists of about 1,000 volumes.
