

THE MANCHESTER GUARDIAN
LONDON, ENGLAND
18 APRIL 1929
(page 14)

An Exchange telegram from Paris says that Mr. Alastair [sic] Crowley, the English mystical writer, who has been refused permission to remain in France, was yesterday escorted to the Franco-Belgian frontier. He is going to Brussels.