

THE DAILY HERALD
LONDON
26 JULY 1933
(page 7)

MR. ALEISTER CROWLEY

Mr. Aleister Crowley, the author, who in the Chancery Division, was refused an interim injunction to stop further publication of Miss Ethel Mannin's book "Confessions and Impressions," in which he alleges libellous passages.