

THE DAILY HERALD
LONDON
22 JUNE 1934
(page 1)

MR. ALEISTER CROWLEY'S ARREST

Mr. Aleister Crowley, the author, was arrested yesterday and charged with receiving five letters belonging to Mrs. Betty Sedgwick.

He was released on bail and will appear at Marylebone Police Court to-day.

Mrs. Sedgwick, author of the "Tiger Woman," gave evidence in April in a libel action in the High Court, which was lost by Mr. Crowley.

The judge then ordered certain letters to be impounded.