Aleister Crowley Found Guilty.

Bound Over on Receiving Charge.

The hearing of the case for the defence was continued at the Old Bailey yesterday when the trial of Edward Alexander Crowley (58), described as an explorer, was resumed. Crowley was charged with receiving four original letters and one copy said to have been stolen from Mrs. Betty Sedgwick, professionally known as "Betty May," an artist's model, of South Hill Park Gardens, Hampstead.

After an absence of half an hour the jury found Crowley guilty.

Judge Whitely told Crowley that he would be bound over for two years to be of good behaviour. The Judge also ordered that Crowley should pay a sum not exceeding 50 guineas towards the costs of the prosecution.
