

THE GLOUCESTERSHIRE ECHO
CHELTENHAM, GLOUCESTERSHIRE, ENGLAND
25 JULY 1934
(page 6)

ALEXANDER CROWLEY BOUND OVER.

At the Old Bailey to-day Edward Alexander Crowley, aged 58, described as an explorer, who was charged with receiving four original letters and one copy said to have been stolen from Mrs. Betty Sedgwick, professionally known as "Betty May," an artist's model, was bound over for two years and ordered to pay 50 guineas costs.