

THE NOTTINGHAM EVENING POST
NOTTINGHAMSHIRE, ENGLAND
26 JULY 1934

ALEISTER CROWLEY BOUND OVER

Edward Alexander Crowley, aged 58, described as an explorer, was found guilty at the Old Bailey yesterday on a receiving charge, and was bound over and ordered to pay 50 guineas costs.

Crowley was charged with receiving four original letters and one copy, said to have been stolen from Mrs. Betty Sedgwick, professionally known as "Betty May," an artist's model, of Hampstead.