

taken that its chances are considered worthy of more serious consideration: any essay so detained will in all events be awarded a small consolation prize.

9. The essay should extend to at least fifty pages of typed MS.

10. Only those essays that are typewritten will be considered.

11. The essays will be adjudicated upon by a member of the Society, and his decision will be final.

12. All essays should be sent by registered post: their receipt will be immediately acknowledged.

13. All essays should be forwarded without the name of the Author upon them, accompanied by a sealed envelope containing the name of the competitor, on the outside of which should be inscribed a motto selected by the competitor, and which motto should also appear upon the essay. These envelopes will not in any case be opened until the essays have been examined, and then only for the purpose of announcing the prizewinner, and communicating with him, or returning the rejected essays to their owners.

14. Should two essays appear of supreme and equal merit, the prize will be increased to one hundred and fifty pounds and divided between them.

15. Consolation prizes value under Ten Pounds, according to the merit of the MSS., may be awarded.

16. All communications should be addressed:

THE SECRETARY,
SOCIETY FOR THE PROPAGATION OF RELIGIOUS TRUTH, BOLESKINE, FOYERS, INVERNESS,

who will be glad to answer any questions, or to supply books to competitors for the necessary study in case they do not already possess them.
