The Lyceum World

Arthur E. Gringle, Editor. Indianapolis, Ind.

It is an absolutely independent Lyceum Magazine, containing the ablest discussions on Literary, Musical, Entertainment, Oratorical and Reform subjects. It gives those hints which make the effective Public Speaker, After-Dinner, Commencement and Special Occasion Orator, and the pleasing Reciter and Musician, while it broadens and uplifts all life through its varied literary articles, which during the year will include subjects not discussed in such a manner elsewhere; such as:

Have You a Lecture Course or Chautauqua in Your Town?
Get a Present!

We want the names of the chairmen of lecture courses and Chautauquas, and information concerning towns which have no Chautauquas. If you will send us a few lines, telling us who is chairman of your lecture course, your Chautauqua (or if you have none, who might be interested in one) we shall be glad to reward you for your trouble by sending you entirely free of all cost a copy of "THE VOYAGE OF LIFE"—a lecture on how to make life a successful and pleasant trip, and a booklet you will read and re-read often for inspiration, encouragement and help, or—BETTER STILL: Send us the above information, and $1.00 for a year's subscription to THE LYCEUM WORLD, and we shall send you the magazine for one full year; the above booklet, a copy of the great lecture delivered by the ex-Secretary of State, William J. Bryan, which people pay him $500.00 to deliver; an article by Secretary Bryan on the great Chautauqua movement, illustrated; a humorous character song by the eccentric poet-entertainer, T. E. Lucy, just as he gives it in Lyceum work, talks and all sold many times for 50 cents; and three back numbers of THE LYCEUM WORLD—all six of the above, worth many times the $1.00 asked, if you will fill out your order and send the information requested. DO IT TODAY, as this offer will remain open only while the supply lasts.

THE LYCEUM WORLD, Arthur E. Gringle, Editor
Indianapolis, Ind., Dept. Int.

Please send all above with a year's subscription, for which I herewith send you $1.00, to the following address:
