MULTIPLEX

Two sets of type ways in the machine — "JUST TURN THE KNOB" Presto — one set for each of any two type languages simultaneously at one second. It will do all that other machines can do BUT IT STANDS ALONE in the special fields of writing endeavor. For instance:

Business Executives

because of individuality of work. Large business type for business letters. Economical type for condensed writing on form of Mail, Sales, Index Cards and Statistical work. "Just turn the Knob" because of its unusual type capabilities, with many styles of type and many languages. Two sets of type ways on the machine — "Just Turn the Knob"

Literary People

Social Correspondence — Private Secretaries

because of its ability to set type and high individuality of the work. Its refined and artistic appearance, and its elegant type capabilities.

Professional Vocations, including Engineers (Mathematicians)

because of being type set on specially adapted die cast steel, with all special characters created, condensed and space changeable.

Linguists

because of being easy to set on any available, all size changeable, and high individuality of work and capability of writing both Old and New World languages on the same machine.

Factory Retail Machines are available in great quantities. Easy assembly, portable. Discount for immediate orders. Catalogue gladly sent for the asking.
