

WORD-LORE
The 'Folk' Magazine
LONDON, ENGLAND
JUNE 1927
(pages 85 & 96-97)

CORRESPONDENCE

THE FOX'S WEDDING

Dear Sir,

In Sussex (and possibly elsewhere), when sunshine and rain synchronise (Vol. II., p. 32), the phenomenon is known as "A Monkey's Birthday."

Faithfully yours,

Victor B. Neuburg
Steyping, Sussex.

-----

NOTES QUERIES AND ANSWERS

N. 67.—A Suffolk Riddle.—The following quaint riddle, which, so far as I know, is uncollected, was communicated to a friend by an old countryman near Ipswich:—

"Four upstanders, four downhangers, two lookers, two crookers, a wig-wag, and a winder.

The "upstanders" are legs, the "downhangers," teats, "lookers" eyes, the "crookers" horns, the "wig-wag" is a tongue, and the "winder" a tail. The answer is "a cow."

Victor B. Neuburg
(Steyping, Sussex).